You don't know Michael, but he'd like you to owe him 10 bucks.

Imagine you were told that your life was ending. Would you run off for a last hurrah, or spend every moment with your friends and family?

One incredible man decided that the last 16 months of his life would be dedicated to appreciating loved ones, petting strange dogs and trying to raise a million dollars for cancer care. Along the way, he brought the dreaded C-word, Cancer, out into the open. Join Michael on his journey to make 5,000 Facebook friends, publish a book, meet a couple of Hollywood comedians, and let him show you what living is really about.
