"Written in elegant prose, it is not only about the ills of humanity, but also about hope and optimism...Overall, it is a good thriller..." Alex Markman, Author
Eight year-old Hannâ€™sha is sold to human traffickers and for the next four years she lives a life of forced sexual slavery, until one day, a man shows up and takes on the criminal underworld to try and free her. This is a story about integrity, courage and principle in the face of immense evil and corruption.
